BlueGrace Logistics Growth Prompts Relocation of Corporate Office Creating 50 New Jobs in Tampa Bay Market

Freight and Transportation Management Leader Announces Move to Riverview

Riverview, Fla. (January 20, 2010) - BlueGrace Logistics, an innovative logistics, freight and transportation management provider, announced today their corporate relocation and expansion creating more than 50 job opportunities in the Tampa Bay market. Expanding from a 2,000 square foot office in Apollo Beach to a 12,000 foot Class A building in Riverview just outside of Tampa, the new corporate office will house the sales team, management/technical team and a training facility.

“BlueGrace is looking to employ champions who embody a drive to be involved in a rapidly expanding environment that offers unlimited growth opportunities,” said Bobby Harris, President and CEO of BlueGrace Logistics.

Formed in 2007 by Harris, BlueGrace Logistics has 35 employees locally with satellite offices in Salt Lake City and Chicago. A focus on carrier relationships and customer service utilizing innovative technology supporting logistics, freight and transportation management has been key to their success. The company recently released BlueGrace Mobile Freight Optimizer, the first iPhone application to provide real-time access to shipping quotes calculating freight rates and transit times from multiple carriers.
